

I am against any relaxing of the limitations on radiating rf noise from power lines (BPL) or any other source. Faulty power lines have already limited my use of the amateur radio bands. Sending data or rf transmissions on power lines will greatly restrict the ability of amateur operators to service the public

W7AWA